Vladimir Malkin

St.Petersburg, FL, USA

Vladimir, a second generation artist, was born 1955, Moscow, Russia. Graduated from School of Art at the Moscow State Pedagogical University in 1978. His works are in the permanent collection at Historical Art museum (Sergiev Posad) and State museum of Decorative Applied Art (Moscow). Although he enjoyed much success in Russia, he felt that his work was limited by the social and political conditions of the time. In 1991, he and his family moved to the United States in search of a better life. Currently he is an active artist enamellist. His international awards for excellence and artistic work are from the Japan Enameling Artist Association in 2002 and 2006.
